AiVi Nguyen receives Worcester Business Journal Outstanding Women in Business Award

OCTOBER 30, 2017

AiVi Nguyen has been selected as a recipient of this year's Outstanding Women in Business (OWIB) award. The OWIB award is the Worcester Business Journal's most competitive, and highly-selective recognition, receiving 42 nominees this year. Of the 42 women nominated for the award, Nguyen was one of six chosen to be honored – and for good reason. At 31, AiVi became a Partner at Bowditch & Dewey, making her among the youngest attorneys to attain that title.

Aside from working at Bowditch & Dewey, she is also extremely devoted to the city of Worcester. As a faithful supporter of her hometown, she gives back wherever and whenever she can by serving on numerous city boards and committees.
