Bowditch Joins MetroWest Life Sciences Network as Founding Member

APRIL 10, 2019

Bowditch is a founding member of the MetroWest Life Sciences Network (MWLSN), a program of the MetroWest Chamber of Commerce. The MWLSN was officially launched on April 4 and is made up of biotech, pharma, healthcare, medtech and life science-based businesses, municipal officials, and economic and business development organizations located in the west suburban region of Boston. Paul Bauer, leader of the firm's Real Estate and Environmental practice, is a member of the committee.

The collaboration plans to drive collaboration, innovation, networking and entrepreneurship in the region; grow an active and vibrant community of local healthcare and life science professionals; and create new investment opportunities across MetroWest.

Other founding members include:

- ABI LAB
- Alira Health
- King Street Properties
- MetroWest Medical Center
- Middlesex Savings Bank
- Sanofi
