Title IX Final Regulations Explained (Webinar)

On May 6, the Department of Education published its long-anticipated Title IX final rule in a 2,033-page document. The changes are significant and go into effect on August 14. In this webinar, Bowditch attorneys provide an overview of key provisions and legal analysis for HR and student affairs professionals, Title IX coordinators and other campus leaders with Title IX responsibilities.

This webinar, which was held live on May 21, 2020, reviews what the Title IX final rule means for you, your department, and your institution.
