Mike Angelini Appointed to the Greater Worcester Community Foundation Board of Directors

OCTOBER 14, 2020

Mike Angelini has joined the Greater Worcester Community Foundation board of directors. He serves as an advisor to public and private companies in Massachusetts and the northeastern U.S. and as a trial lawyer who concentrates in the resolution of business disputes. His clients are typically large family businesses facing internal, multi-generational conflicts, manufacturers, banks, other financial organizations, and educational and other not-for-profit entities.

The Greater Worcester Community Foundation was founded to “develop an organization that engaged Worcester County in its own betterment. This neighborly experiment built on self-reliance embraces and engages diverse sectors united in their vision of a better Worcester.”
