

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Bob Young Spoke at Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly Event “FTC proposes nationwide ban on non-competes”

The Federal Trade Commission has proposed a rule that would ban non-competes for almost all workers in the U.S. Bob Young spoke at Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly's webinar “FTC proposes nationwide ban on non-competes” on January 30 and provided details about what the rule says, the impact it will have on employers, the anticipated timeline for implementation, the implications for non-disclosure agreements and other restrictive covenants, and the alternatives the FTC is considering.

Watch Recording