Tracy Thomas Boland Participated in the Boston Business Journal's Mentoring Monday Event

On February 27, the Boston Business Journal hosted its 10th annual Mentoring Monday event, which brought together women in the business community for a full afternoon of roundtable discussions, networking, speed mentoring and fun in a fast-paced coaching atmosphere. During the event, Tracy Thomas Boland and other female business leaders offered their expertise, advice and connections to attendees. The Mentoring Monday program took place nationally in 40 locations from Boston to Hawaii with more than 200 women coached at each event.
