Doug Radigan Elected First Vice President of Worcester Economic Club

JULY 20, 2023

Doug Radigan has been elected First Vice President of the Worcester Economic Club. He previously served as the organization's Second Vice President.

At Bowditch, Doug represents corporate and individual clients in complex commercial and civil litigation in the state and federal courts of Massachusetts and New England. An aggressive trial and appeals lawyer, he has substantial courtroom and dispute resolution experience on behalf of clients across a wide range of types and industries, including manufacturers, banks and financial institutions, closely-held corporations and utilities facing high-stakes, hotly-contested claims.

The Worcester Economic Club was founded in 1903 and is an association of professional men and women in the Worcester County area. The club provides a forum for the discussion of economic, civic, educational, and sociological subjects of interest to its membership. The non-political, non-partisan and non-profit organization hosts a number of events each year that feature a broad range of speakers who are chosen for distinction and timeliness. Over the years the club's prestigious speaking series has included economists, public officials, foreign dignitaries, business leaders, educators, journalists and authors.
