Brian Grossman Named Chair-Elect of Board of Directors for MetroWest Chamber of Commerce

FEBRUARY 20, 2024

Brian Grossman has been named Chair-Elect of the Board of Directors for the MetroWest Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber is a not-for-profit business advocacy, community and economic development association committed to the support of its members' growth and success and the development of a positive economic climate in the MetroWest region and beyond.

At Bowditch, Brian focuses his practice on real estate law and has more than 20 years of experience assisting developers, telecommunications, renewable energy, financial services, and commercial clients with matters ranging from land use and development, litigation, real estate transactions, landlord-tenant disputes, and related real estate issues. Brian has familiarity and experience in complex real estate transactions pertaining to financing, leasing and sale of property, acquisition, and other environmental issues with a proven track record of handling complex zoning and land use appeals. His extensive zoning and land use experience has helped him to successfully represent clients before permit-granting authorities in over 170 municipalities in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island.
