

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Andrew Stern Moderated Boston Bar Association Program “Free and Clear of What? Recent Developments in 363(f) and Property of the Estate Disputes”

Attendees learned about recent developments in 363(f) and property of the estate disputes at the Boston Bar Association’s April 12 virtual program. Andrew Stern moderated a panel that highlighted several cutting-edge decisions on these issues. Attendees received primer materials on this critical area of law, including summaries of recent opinions and references to additional practice materials. The panel concluded with Q&A and debate among the panelists concerning, among other topics, Judge Katz’s recent In re Worcester Country Club Acres decision.