Amy Fabiano to Moderate Human Resources Roundtable at Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce's Game Changers Conference

In today's rapidly evolving global economy, the need for a skilled workforce has never been more critical. Access to workforce is essential to maintain competitive advantage and ensure sustainable growth in an increasingly complex market. On October 11, the Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce will hold its Game Changers Business Conference & Expo – Workforce: Finding and Training Talent to Keep Worcester Moving Forward. The event will bring together industry leaders, employers, HR professionals, and training experts to explore innovative strategies for workforce development and talent management.

At the conference, Amy Fabiano will moderate the panel “Human Resources Roundtable: Collaborative Solutions for Workforce Challenges.” Register for the event to gain valuable insights, share best practices, and collaborate on building a skilled and resilient workforce for the future.
