

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Amy Fabiano Moderated Human Resources Roundtable at Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce's Game Changers Conference

In today's rapidly evolving global economy, the need for a skilled workforce has never been more critical. Access to workforce is essential to maintain competitive advantage and ensure sustainable growth in an increasingly complex market. On October 11, the Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce held its Game Changers Business Conference & Expo – Workforce: Finding and Training Talent to Keep Worcester Moving Forward. The event brought together industry leaders, employers, HR professionals, and training experts to explore innovative strategies for workforce development and talent management.

At the conference, Amy Fabiano moderated the panel “Human Resources Roundtable: Collaborative Solutions for Workforce Challenges.” Attendees gained valuable insights, shared best practices, and collaborated on ideas for building a skilled and resilient workforce for the future.