Joshua Lee Smith to Speak at Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce Construction & Real Estate Roundtable

The Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce will host a Construction & Real Estate Roundtable on November 19, 2024. Topics will include an overview of housing development in the city of Worcester, an update on housing policy and the recently signed Affordable Homes Act, and a summary of funding programs available to support affordable housing stock creation including but not limited to the Equitable Developers Fund, Worcester's Affordable Housing Trust Fund and the expansion of the Commonwealth's Housing Development Incentive Program.

At the event, Joshua Lee Smith will speak on a panel that will discuss affordable housing creation in gateway cities. Additional panelists will include: Eric Shupin, Chief of Policy for the Executive Office of Housing and Livable Communities; Moddie Turay, President and CEO of the Mass Housing Investment Corporation; and Jeanette Tozer, Affordable Housing Trust Manager for the City of Worcester.
