Nina Dow to Moderate Program on Estate Planning for Incapacitated or Disabled Adults

Nina Dow will moderate the Worcester County Bar Association's (WCBA) February 12, 2025, program on estate planning for incapacitated or disabled adults. The event is being presented by the WCBA's Tax, Trusts & Estates Law Section. Nina serves as co-chair of the Section.

The program will cover requesting substituted judgment in conservatorship matters to create and execute an estate plan. In addition, the Honorable Kathryn Bailey, Associate Justice Worcester Probate & Family Court, will provide a perspective from the bench with regard to guardian ad litem appointments and petitioners.
